Own a hoist...srsly.

Got someone (a cute cynic, perhaps) to drive to the WV/PA border to borrow it?

My cousin's wedding, there was so much food people ended up taking desserts home in to-go containers.
Srsly. Um, that's desserts, plural, per person.

My brother's rehearsal dinner is the second-best party I've ever been to in my life. The best, of course, is and will probably always be his wedding reception. (Which, wow, was 12 years ago. May your friends be saying the same thing about your reception in twelve years!)

Last wedding I went to, there was a pre-party (not the rehearsal dinner which also happened and I feel a little sorry for those folks) where everyone was at the parent's apartment for semi-traditional Polish food*, then the reception the next day, then a bbq the day after that at a lakehouse.

I didn't eat much for the following week after that. :)

*Semi-traditional as there were perogies stuffed with buffalo style chicken. So good. :)

Hope all went well!
